World's Fair March, 1904.

Mr. John C. Weber, director of Weber's Military Band of Cincinnati, known as the "Price Band of America," has composed the St. Louis World's Fair March 1904 and dedicated it to the Louisiana Purchase Exposition. It will be distributed through the passenger department of the B. & O. S-W-R. R., World's Fair Route, at 10 cents per copy.

The music is in sheet form, arranged for the piano, being very handsomely gotten up, with highly illuminated title cover. Mr. John C. Weber is not only a great Musical Director, but he has written some very catchy and popular marches. The St. Louis World's Fair March is his latest success, and will add further to his fame.

Mr. Weber and his great organization of artists has twice defeated all comers in national contests at Elks' Reunions. The latest triumph was at Baltimore, Md., on the 21st of last July, when, in a notable contest, composed of the leading bands of America, won the first prize of $1,000. It is confidently expected that Mr. Weber's World's Fair March will become a popular air during the next year, and every household should have a copy of this music.

Sent 10 cents in silver to the undersigned and copy of the World's Fair March will be mailed to your address.

Sir Samuel Sims saw sweet Sara Sampson swimming. Suddenly she seemed sinking. Sir Samuel stood stunned. Striding seaward, spurning shingle, Sir Samuel swiftly swam seawards. Sir Samuel skillfully supported swooning Sara. Swimming shorewards Sir Samuel successfully succored Sara. Seemingly somewhat shaky, Sir Samuel sampled some spirits—special Scotch. Sara saw Sir Samuel's self-sacrificing spirit; Sir Samuel saw Sara's sweetness. Sir Samuel soon succored Sara. Striding slowly, Sara sighed softly. Sir Samuel seemed speechless.

"Say something, Sir Samuel," said Sara. "Say Sam, Sara," said Sir Samuel. Sara, smiling shyly, softly said "Sam." "Sara, Sam!" stammered Sir Samuel. "Sweet Sara—sweetheart!" Sara solemnly surrendered. Please stop this. We are chort of eccece. (Printer)—N. Y. News.

DANGEROUS NEGLECT.

It's the neglect of backache, sideache, pain in the hips or loins that finally prostrates the strongest body. The kidney warnings are serious—they tell you that they are unable to filter the body's waste and poison from the blood—the sewers are clogged and impurities are running wild to impregnate nerves, heart, brain and every organ of the body with disease elements. Doan's Kidney Pills are quick to soothe and strengthen sick kidneys, and help them free the system from poison. Read how valuable they are, even in cases of long-standing:

L. C. Lovell, of 415 North First St., Spokane, Wash., says: "I have had trouble from my kidneys for the past ten years. It was caused by a strain to which I paid little attention. But as I neglected the trouble, it became worse and worse until any strain or slight cold was sure to be followed by severe pain across my back. Then the action of the kidney secretions became deranged and I was caused much annoyance besides loss of sleep. Doan's Kidney Pills were brought to my notice and after taking them a short time their good effect was apparent. All the pain was removed from my back and the kidney secretions became normal. Doan's Kidney Pills do all that is claimed for them."

A FREE TRIAL of this great remedy which cured Mr. Lovell will be mailed on application to any part of the United States. Address Foster-McBarn Co., Buffalo, N. Y. For sale by all druggists, price 50 cents per box.

A FUND FOR HEROES.

Andrew Carnegie Gives $5,000-000 Establish It.

This Scheme Was Conceived Immediately After the Harwick Mine Disaster, in Which Many Lives Were Sacrificed.

Pittsburg, Pa., April 16.—It was made known Friday that Andrew Carnegie had created a fund of $5,000,000 for the benefit of the "Dependencies of those losing their lives in heroic effort to save their fellow men, or for the heroes themselves if injured only." Provision is also made for medals to be given in commemoration of heroic acts.

The fund is to be known as "The Hero Fund," and consists of $5,000,000 of first collateral five per cent. bonds of the United States steel corporation. The trust is placed in the hands of a commission of 20 men.

The commission held its first meeting Friday and made known the project. The scheme was conceived by Mr. Carnegie immediately after the Harwick mine disaster when he summoned to New York Charles L. Taylor, chairman, and F. M. Wilmut, manager of the Andrew Carnegie relief fund, to discuss with them plans for the relief of the sufferers from this catastrophe.

On March 12, just before his departure for Europe, Mr. Carnegie forwarded a letter to Mr. Taylor announcing the plan, and stating that the certificate of the bonds had been placed in his hands.

In Mr. Carnegie's own words the plan is "To place those employed in peaceful vocations who have been injured in heroic effort to save human life in somewhat better positions pecuniarily than before, until again able to work. In case of death the widow and children or other dependents to be provided for, the widow until she shall remarry and the children until they shall have reached a self-supporting age. For exceptional children, exceptional grants may be made for educational education. Grants of sums of money may also be made to heroes, or heroines, as the committee thinks advisable, each case to be judged on its merits."

A medal shall be given to the hero, or widow, or next of kin, which shall recite the heroic deed it commemorates.

The field embraced by the fund is the United States and Canada and the waters thereof.

THE RECENT PENSION ORDER.

Commissioner Ware Corrects a Wrong Impression.

Washington, April 16.—To make clear the actual effect of provisions of the recent age pension order of Commissioner Ware, about which a large number of inquiries are making, the following official statement was made Friday:

"There appears to be an impression among many of the old soldiers that allowances of pension under the age order of the commissioner of pensions are in addition to pensions allowed heretofore.

"This is an erroneous idea of the order. The law prohibits the payment of more than one pension to a person for the same period and the effect of the order on those having a pension already, only will be to increase such pension up to the age limit, if the pension already drawn is below that amount."

CAUSES SOME VEXATION.

The Non-Attendance of Republican Members of the House.

Washington, April 16.—The non-attendance of republican members of the house in what are thought to be the closing days of the session, is causing some vexation to the managers of that body. A circular was mailed Friday night to the republican membership signed by Representative Tawney, the "republican wail," and issued at the request of Speaker Cannon, calling attention in no uncertain language to the necessity of attending to business. The leaders Friday predicted that April 28 would be the day of adjournment and they are bending every effort to carry out this plan.

The Statehood Bill.

Washington, April 16.—Republican members of the house met Friday night to discuss and to decide on a statehood program. The motion before the caucus was a resolution providing for two new states to be made of Oklahoma and Indian territory and of Arizona and New Mexico.

Lunched With the Vanderbilts.

Syracuse, Sicily, April 16.—Emperor William, wearing the uniform of an admiral and accompanied by eight members of his suite, Friday lunched with Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius Vanderbilt on their steam yacht, the North Star.

The Week's Business Failures.

New York, April 16.—Business failures in the United States for the week ending with April 14 number 198, as against 201 last week, 160 in the like week in 1903, 193 in 1902, 212 in 1901. In Canada failures for the week number 20, as against 24 last week.

Snoring Not a Cause For Divorce.

Omaha, Neb., April 16.—The plea that her husband snored so loudly that she could not sleep did not suffice to secure a divorce for Mrs. Albert Phoenix, and her application was refused by the authorities.

WHERE THE BLAME LAY.

He Wanted to Get to the Front a Little Too Quick for His Own Good.

Sternly the judge regarded the prisoner before him. He beheld a man of tender, unripe years, whose face was full to look upon, bearing as it did every known mark of honesty. Appearances gave no reason for committing the crime, and yet the jury had decided, on first ballot, that the prisoner was guilty. In fact, the plea for the defense was very weak, says the New York Times.

"It seems incredible," said the judge, "that a man with your connections should have stooped so low as to become a common forger. Surely some one else must have been the cause of your downfall. A woman?"

"There was some one," replied the prisoner, "but that some one was not a woman. It is yourself, your honor."

"I ejaculated the judge, amazedly."

"Just so. A short time ago I was a member of the graduating class in my college. You were one of the speakers at the farewell session. You may remember your words: 'The world lies ahead of you. But you must push your way steadily. I want each one of you to go to the front: I want to soon see each occupying a prominent position in the eyes of your families and of the world.' The prisoner paused and smiled. 'I forgot quicker than the others. I've gained a place before the public. And now, what next?'"

"Three years," laconically said the judge. "Next case!"

1901-1904.

NeKoma, Ill., April 18th.—Away back in 1901 Mr. Albert E. Larson of this place was suffering with Kidney disease and backache. The pain he was called upon to endure was very great and rendered his life almost a burden to him. He heard of Dodd's Kidney Pills and began to use them and almost at once he began to get better. He had been unable to work, but Dodd's Kidney Pills soon made him able to go to work again. He used the remedy till he was completely cured. He says he has grown stronger year by year since he got rid of his old trouble.

"Dodd's Kidney Pills certainly gave me a complete and permanent cure, for I have felt strong since I used them. In 1901 that ever before. I can do harder work now in 1904 than I could last year. I cannot praise Dodd's Kidney Pills enough. I would not be without them in the house."

Impossible.

"Sir!" exclaimed the injured party, "you stuck your umbrella into my eye." "O, no," replied the cheerful offender, "you are mistaken." "Mistaken?" demanded the irate man. "You idiot, I know when my eye is hurt, I guess."

"Doubtless," replied the cheerful fellow, "but you don't know my umbrella. I borrowed this one from a friend to-day."—Stray Stories.
